The Katyn Forest Massacre

The below video, narrated by Dr. William Pierce, exposes the coordinated maneuvers by the allied nations (<https://historicaltribune.wordpress.com/2016/09/18/france-and-britain-intentionally-have-poland-destroyed-just-to-initiate-wwii-and-have-europe-conquered-by-communists/>), to throw Europe into chaotic war, communism and genocide, while to the world, their propaganda was blaming it on those who were trying to prevent it.

The Katyn Forest Massacre (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Katyn\_massacre), was the mass murder of at least 15,000 to 22,000 ethnic Polish Officers, dignitaries, intellectuals and other community leaders, by the Jewish Soviet Communists and their NKVD.

German soldiers were informed about the mass killings by local Russians. They searched the location and after discovery of the many corpses, German officials brought in investigators from various, purportedly neutral nations and the IRC, to ascertain who the victims were and who had carried out the massacre.

It was 'Proven' that they were among the approximately 22,000 ethnic Poles missing from Soviet occupied Poland and other documentation found on the bodies (newspapers, diaries, winter clothing etc), showed that they were in Soviet Russia and the Jewish-Bolshevik death camps prior to their murders.

Although all evidence indicated the Jewish Bolsheviks guilt of these killings, the Jewish newspapers reported to the world, that it was yet another crime conducted by "Evil Germans."

Further, even though today it is now an established fact in historical records, that this massacre was carried out by the Jewish Bolsheviks NKVD, not one government, Jewish paper or obscure article has ever conceded their criminal defamatory error and, not so much as an apology was ever given to the Germans for this international crime... nor has anyone been charged for this war crime and crime against humanity, except for the hanging of 7 innocent German men;

K.H. Strueffling,
H. Remlinger,
E. Böhom,
E. Sommerfeld,
H. Jannike,
E. Skotki; and,
E. Geherer

Three other innocent German men were sentenced to 20 years labour in the Jewish Gulag system;

E.P. Vogel,
F. Wiese; and,
A. Diere...

... they were never to be seen again!

Yet another result of purported Justice from the Nuremberg Show Trials (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Show\_trial). In fact, those who sat in the position of Prosecution against these innocent German men at Nuremberg, were the Soviet Officials responsible for this crime (and many others), in the biggest display of 'Conflict of Interest' (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Conflict\_of\_interest#Related\_to\_the\_practice\_of\_law) the world has ever been subjected to!

Following numerous Soviet excuses and pretended searches, the British and American authorities both knew of Soviet responsibility by the time the Nuremberg Tribunals were held. The alleged evidence of Hearsay excerpts read allowed – yet with no present witnesses – from unsigned documents with no letterheads, purporting to be reports of Forensic examinations and, the charges of German guilt brought at the IMT, placed the British and American Governments, along with the whole Tribunal itself, in an intensely difficult position. Relations with the Polish Government-in-Exile were strained and to have acquitted Göring and the other IMT defendants of this crime, would have implied that the Jewish-Soviets were in fact guilty... but they shared the bench as Prosecution!

To find them guilty of this crime, would have imploded the whole post-war proceedings and exposed the IMT as the illegitimate Show Trial that it was... this would not be tolerated at any cost.

Investigative Documentary held in the U.S. National Archives

Today, according to the C.I.A. (<https://www.cia.gov/library/center-for-the-study-of-intelligence/csi-publications/csi-studies/studies/winter99-00/art6.html>);

“Official records, opened in 1990 when glasnost was still in vogue, show that Stalin had every intention of treating the Poles as political prisoners. Just two days after the [Soviet] invasion [of Poland] began on 17 September, the NKVD created a Directorate of Prisoners of War. It took custody of Polish prisoners from the Army and began organizing a network of ‘Reception Centers’ and transfer camps and arranging rail transport to the western USSR.

Once there, the Poles were placed in “special” (concentration) camps, where, from October to February, they were subjected to lengthy interrogations and constant political agitation. The camps were at Kozelsk (<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Kozelsk>), Starobelsk and Ostashkov, all three located on the grounds of seized Orthodox monasteries, converted into prisons. The NKVD dispatched one of its rising stars, Major Vassili Zarubin (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Vasily\_Zarubin), to Kozelsk, where most of the officers were kept, to conduct interviews. Zarubin presented himself to the Poles as a charming, sympathetic, and cultured Soviet official, which led many prisoners into sharing confidences that would cost them their lives.”

“During April-May 1940, the Polish prisoners were moved from their internment camps and taken to three execution sites. The place most identified with the Soviet atrocity is Katyn Forest, located 12 miles west of Smolensk, Russia. For years historians assumed that the grounds of an NKVD rest and recreation facility were both an execution and burial site for nearly a fifth of the unfortunate Poles who found themselves in Soviet captivity. Post-Cold War revelations, however, suggest that the victims were shot in the basement of the NKVD headquarters in Smolensk and at an abattoir in the same city, although some may have been executed at a site in the forest itself. In any event, the Katyn Forest is—and will probably long remain—the main symbol of the atrocity, even if it was not the actual killing field.” [...]

“Despite overwhelming evidence of Soviet responsibility, Moscow blamed the Germans, and for the rest of the war, Washington and London officially accepted the Soviet counter-charge (from the Germans). When the Polish government-in-exile in London demanded an international inquiry, Stalin used this as a pretext to break relations. The Western allies objected but eventually acquiesced. Soon thereafter, the Soviet dictator assembled a group of Polish Communists that returned to Poland with the Red Army in 1944 and formed the nucleus of the postwar government.

“Those who died at Katyn included an admiral, two generals, 24 colonels, 79 lieutenant colonels, 258 majors, 654 captains, 17 naval captains, 3,420 NCOs, seven chaplains, three landowners, a prince, 43 officials, 85 privates, and 131 refugees. Also among the dead were 20 university professors; 300 physicians; several hundred lawyers, engineers, and teachers; and more than 100 writers and journalists as well as about 200 pilots. It was their social status that landed them in front of NKVD execution squads. Most of the victims were reservists who had been mobilized when Germany invaded. In all, the NKVD eliminated almost half the Polish officer corps—part of Stalin’s long-range effort to prevent the resurgence of an independent Poland.”

Documents show Stalin signed Katyn death warrants

Although the documents have been available to a handful of researchers since 1992, since the fall of the Soviet Union, it took nearly 20 years for the general public to be given access to the files which concern the 1940 Katyn massacre.

The sight of Stalin’s signature, on what amounts to a collective death warrant, quells decades of debate on the massacre and gives the lie to claims by die-hard Stalinist’s, that their idol did not personally sanction the killings.

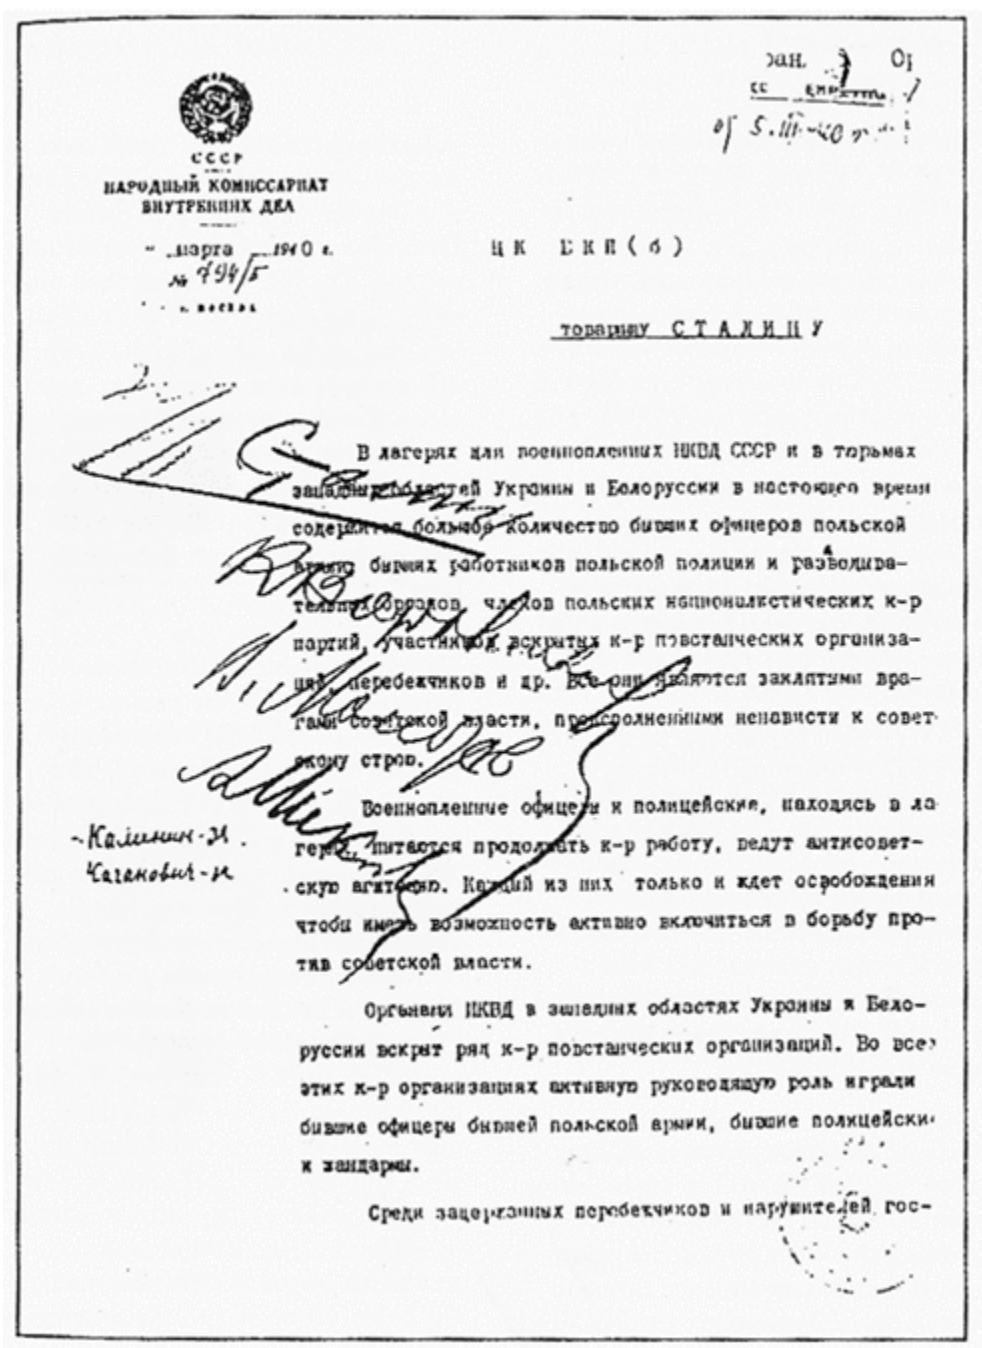

The files catalogue the chilling decision-making process that culminated in Stalin and his Jewish-henchmen approving the execution of 21,587 unarmed Poles, in 1940.

One of the documents made public is a note from Lavrentiy Beria (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Lavrentiy\_Beria), the head of the NKVD (<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/NKVD>), to Stalin about the fate of the Poles. Beria proposes that the NKVD “quickly examine the use of the highest means of punishment – death by shooting.” Stalin’s signature and a red stamp reading “Top Secret” are on the first page of the document, which is dated March 1940. Another document, a secret internal Soviet Communist party memo from 1965, refers to “what was formerly Bourgeois Poland” and warns against any public disclosure, arguing that the documents have no historical value.

Below:

Memorandum with an NKVD letterhead from Lavrentiy Beria to "Comrade Stalin" proposing to execute captured Polish officers, soldiers and other prisoners by shooting. Stalin's handwritten signature appears on top, followed by signatures of Politburo members; Kliment Voroshilov (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Kliment\_Voroshilov), Vyacheslav Molotov (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Vyacheslav\_Molotov) and Anastas Mikoyan (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Anastas\_Mikoyan). Signatures in left margin – Mikhail Kalinin (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Mikhail\_Kalinin) and Lazar Kaganovich (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Lazar\_Kaganovich), both favouring mass execution.

Count Jerzy Potocki, the Polish Ambassador in Washington, in a report to the Polish Foreign Office in January 1939, is quoted approvingly by the highly respected British military historian Major-General JFC Fuller. Concerning public opinion in America he says:

“Above all, propaganda here is entirely in Jewish hands when bearing public ignorance in mind, their propaganda is so effective that people have no real knowledge of the true state of affairs in Europe. It is interesting to observe that in this carefully thought-out campaign no reference at all is made to Soviet Russia.

If that country is mentioned, it is referred to in a friendly manner and people are given the impression that Soviet Russia is part of the democratic group of countries. Jewry was able not only to establish a dangerous centre in the New World for the dissemination of hatred and enmity, but it also succeeded in dividing the world into two warlike camps.

President Roosevelt has been given the power to create huge reserves in armaments for a future war, which the Jews are deliberately heading for.”

(Fuller, JFC: The Decisive Battles of the Western World, vol 3, pp 372-374.)

In a 1976 interview with Harold Rosenthal, top Administrative Aide to US Senator Jacob Javits, said the following when discussing the Jewish usurpation of Russia...

Excerpt:

“It is an established rule to destroy all members of pre-existing government, their families and relatives, but never Jews. We destroy all members of the police, state police, army officers and their families, but never Jews.

You see, we know when a government begins to search for the Communists within its borders, they are really attempting to uncover Jews in their area. We’re not fooled!”

Dr William Pierce, summarises the machinations of the calculated plans, slogans and crimes by the allies and Jewish media in this short presentation:
